

1. The first view of The Clumps, just sneaking out to the right of the coppice on which Hill?

2. What is the name of the farm in front of The Clumps?

3. What is the number of this road?

4. What is the official name of this place?

5. Less than 50 m off-route on a bridleway that leads to... Where?

6. Why could you not have taken this photo 20 years ago?

7. What is the OS Grid Reference for the location from which this photo was taken? (Hint: It will help to download the image to Windows Explorer)

8. What is the geographical feature at the bottom of this field?

9. Travelling the route anti-clockwise, The Clumps appear on the right of the road only once - in which compass direction ( N E S or W) from here?

10. What is the number of this road?

11. What is the name of the bridge?

12. Why has one Clump disappeared?

Not a question, but see the next photo

13. Taken from the same location as the previous photo. All roads lead to Rome, but where does this road lead (in Latin)?

14. What is the name of the dodgy business visible to the left of this view?

15. The last time The Clumps are visible is from the top of which hill?